How to Fix DFInTime Browser Compatibility

If you receive this error when trying to logon to the DFInTime website while using the Internet Explorer browser you need to enable compatibility view.

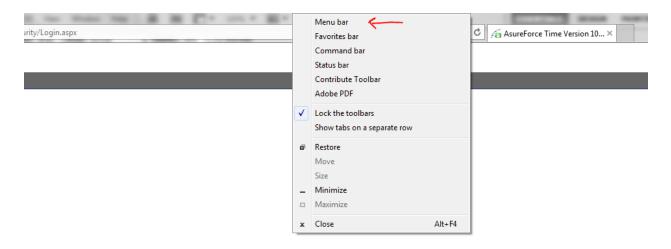

Note: This website will only work while using Internet Explorer. How do I know if I'm using Internet Explorer? If you see Internet Explorer when clicking help from the menu bar you are using Internet Explorer.

Don't have a menu bar at the top of your internet browser? Right click the top of the browser window (the space above the address bar) and select menu bar to enable it.

Now go to Tools and select Compatibility View settings.
